JUDGE JOHN R. BOND, Judge W. H. Swiggart, Hon. Frank P. Bond and Judge Levi S. Woods have been suggested for the Democratic nomination for governor. All are strong men, loyal Democrats, and THE CHRONICLE believes that no mistake would be made in nominating either one of the above staunch Democrats as governor.

WE would like to call the attention of our friends, the candidates, that there is no way to get themselves before the people better than an announcement in The Chroni-CLE. It will cost no more now than the first of the year. Put in your claims early and let your friends to Big Sandy to attend school. tion has this to say on the present and a post-office is one of the possituation: "I have seen in my recent travels through the country many evidences of thrift, which is attributed to flush fields and yielding prides for farm products. I think the car of prosperity is coming to us wrong end foremost. Laber should reap the first reward of toil. With wheat up 30 per cent., wearing apparel advancing under the strains of the Dingley bill, the financial stocks all on the upward move and labor at the ebb tide, I see no hope of a long stay of any sign of prosperity."

THE first and only pictures Mrs. McKinley has had taken in ten years appear in the October number of the Ladies' Home Journal. They form part of a series of new and unpublished photographs of the new occupants of the White House. Mrs. McKinley wore for her picture her inaugural ball dress of silver and white brocade, at the special request of the President, who thought it particularly becoming. The excellent portrait of Mr. Regular correspondence.) McKinley in his office was taken in June. The other pictures in the series show the many changes in the arrangements and furnishings of the rooms and grounds, made by the President and Mrs. McKinley.

One of the most brutal and in- but not seriously so. excusable murders of the age has been committed at Hazleton, Pa., near Big Sandy Saturday. where twenty unarmed miners were killed and forty wounded by order of a Republican sheriff. The men riddled by bullets were all foreigners, brought over under contract by mining syndicates to take the place of American workmen. They were ignorant and vociferous in common with their kind, but it is altogether improbable that they contemplated any breach of the peace while on a strike for living wages. Claiming credit for everthing good the Mc-Kinley administration can not escape responsibility for this unfortunate affair; it must shoulder the bad as it comes along.
